THE COURTS.

JUSTUS H. SCHWAD'S ARREST. A SUIT FOR DAMAGES AGAINST TWO POLICEMEN-THEIR ARREST REFUSED.

Justus H. Schwab was arrested by Officers Michael N. Rooney and G-orge Mayforth for violating the Funday law in selling liquors. On the examination the randay has it seems formers. On the examination, it appeared that the officers were too late, and that the effence occurred soon after midnight on Monday morning. Mr. Schwab was released, and has sued the officers who arrested him for $2,000, in the Marine Court. The who arrested this for $2,000, in the Marina Court. The case came before Judge Shen yesterday on a motion for an order of arrest against the policemen. Judge Shen device the motion, saying of the defendants that their public position enforces on them duries. The act done was within the general scope of those duties—that is, to that the resultations of the Period Processing the court of the production of th see that the regulations of the Excise law were complied with. Until the contrary appears, the reasonable pre-cumption is that that they were acting in the performance of their duties. Mr. Schwab's rights as a citizen must be respected, and he had the additional right that hat has a license given him by the city.

"I will say," he continued, "that it is usual, when the "I will say." he continued, "that it is usual, when the papers presented show that an injury has been done, to issue a warrant of arrest, but when it appears to me or to any other judge that the alleged offence was committed within the general scope of the officers' authority, a writ should not issue. Great inconvenience would result from having officers arrested whose duty it is to protect our lives and property and to preserve order, in having them taken away, in a mere civil suit, from the performance of their duty. If that grew into a habit, it would impair the proper efficiency of the police, and would result injuriously to the public." After some further discussion Judge Shea denied the order for arrest, setting down the case for the first Tuesday in September, and stating that then, if a jury gave a verdict for Mr. Schwab, he would issue his order for arrest without walting for the entry of judgment.

THE COOPER-MARSHALL CONTEST. All those concerned in the Cooper-Marshall investigation seemed yeaterday to have a feeling of rehef that it was to be the last day for six weeks of the in-terminable examination, cross-examination and reeress-examination. The referee and the stenographer shared in the feeling, and even Isaac P. Cooper, the former husband of Mrs. Ruth Cooper, or Mrs. Marshall, showed less perplexity in attempting to answer questions. Mr. Cooper denied positively the testimony of Ann O'Brien, a 'servant formerly in the Cooper household, as to a talk at a Dr. White's or on the Long Branch boat in April. Questions girected to obtaining an explaboat in April. Questions directed to obtaining an explanation of Cooper's letter to A. H. Alker, the lawyer who appeared for him in the divorce suit, were ruled out. Cooper denied that after the divorce he made any such proposals to Mrs. Cooper as she had testified to, or that he had said to her he could "scare" $100,000 out of Mr. Marshall; with a faint effort at humor, he said: "In fact, I think that I should seare scouer than would Marshall." He denied that he had criven Mrs. Cooper from his house in a Winter's night in 1872. Marshall, he stated, frequently visited his house and treated Mrs. Cooper and her friends to wine, sometimes at the bar, sometimes on the piazza. The remainder of the examination consisted of denials and explanations, and at 2 p. m. all gladly took an adjournment to September 17.

ROBERT L. CASE'S APPEAL.

An application was made yesterday on behalf of Robert L. Case, that he be admitted to ball pending his appeal to the Court of Appeals. Judge Daniels to whom, in Supreme Court, Chambers, the application was made, directed that it be made to-day to Judge Denohue, who was one of the General Term which affirmed his conviction.

CIVIL NOTES.

In a suit by Joseph F. Bates against Fredcrick Thompson, to recover $2,000 paid for lottery tickets, Judge Sanford, in Superior Court, Special Term, granted, yesterday, an order that the plaintiff furnish a bill of particulars.

Judge Daniels, in Supreme Court, Chambers, appointed yesterday Eufus G. Beardslee, Dr. H. W. Ranney and James J. Neslie, Commissioners in Lunacy, in the case of Anua Louisa Mentjes, who is said by her mother to be insane.

Lesser Shulman and Isaac J. Edelstein were convicted in April, in the Court of General Sessions, of larceny, in obtaining goods from H. B. Claffin & Co., valued at $560, by false pretences, and sentenced to two years imprisonment. A stay of execution of the sentence was granted by Judge Donohue, and on Tuesday the Supreme Court, General Term, reversed the judgment and directed a new trial. An application was made yesterday by William F. Kintzing, the consel for the accused men, to Judge Daniels, in Supreme Court, Chambers, for writs of habeas corpus and certionari to have them builed until again tried. Judge Daniels granted the writs, returnable to-day.
